The Leadership Institute Seminar:

Improving Parental Involvement in Schools

Presenter: Ako Kambon

Research shows that family engagement in schools improves student achievement, reduces absenteeism, and restores parents' confidence in their children's education. What must educators do to help link schools' family engagement planning with ongoing school improvement efforts? In this interactive training, Ako Kambon will share strategies to improve parental involvement and strengthen the home-to-school connection. Gather with colleagues and explore skills to partner with parents resulting in the best education possible for Alabama's children.
