Council for Leaders in Alabama Schools presents
The Leadership Institute Seminar:

Hope Institute: Partners for Creating a Culture of Character

Presenters: Jodi Newton and Elizabeth Huntley

At the core of the nation’s most pressing social problems is the absence of good character. Schools must learn to develop a strong moral environment or culture in which student character is shaped. The Hope Institute partners with school leaders to cultivate character development by providing school leadership teams with ongoing professional learning experiences. This institute will discuss the inspiring rationale for character education and provide practical ways for leaders to assess a school’s current work and guide future progress in character development.

Sign-in begins at 8:30 a.m.
Institute Time: 9:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.
